

Welsh Commonwealth fly fishing trials for Scotland on Islay to take place on Wednesday 29th September 2021

Note all fishing is for brown trout

The four bank sessions will be pegged out

All hooks must be barbless or the barb must be crushed down

If two Welsh teams accepted one of those teams must consist of a lady angler
Commonwealth rules.

Please note all anglers for trials must bring a controller

All anglers must be members of WSTAA through their club or as an individual

For application please contact Paul Sharman Home 01874 711457 Mobile

07494055088 please leave name phone number and I will return your call

Entry fee £30

The cost for the International in Scotland has yet to be published

Once all entries have been received details for the trials will be published

Venue for bank trial will be on Llyn Egnant part of the Teifi Pools

Closing date for entry 14th September 5pm

Thank you to Tregaron Angling Association for their kindness and support
Paul Sharman

Note

One 3 hour loch style Boat session will take place on the International in Scotland

(Applications for the above trial are now closed)